Bodies of President and Mrs. McKinley Removed To Memorial Mausoleum.

A meeting of the McKinley National Memorial Trustees was held Wednesday, attended by Vice President Fairbanks, Secretary Cortelyou, former Governor Herrick, Charles G. Dawes, Franklin Murphy, Justice Day and Judge Henry W. Hart to approve the program for dedication day, September 30.

It was announced that arrangements had been completed whereby by President Roosevelt, upon his arrival at Canton, Ohio, September 30, will be taken direct from his train to the Central High School where the public and parochial school children are to be massed and sing "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner." The President will deliver an address to the children.

The transfer of the bodies of President and Mrs. McKinley from the caskets in which they now repose in a vault at West Lawn Cemetery, to their final resting place in the monument was made last week. The remains of the two McKinley children, which were buried in West Lawn cemetery, were also transferred at the same time. The transfer of the bodies was in private.

H. C. HOWARD

Urged to Make the Race for Representative in Bourbon.

Former County Judge H. Clay Howard, of Paris, is having strong pressure brought to bear upon him to make the race for Representative against Hal Woodford, the Democratic nominee. Judge Howard is an uncompromising Republican, an able lawyer and a gentleman and will if he decides to make the race be a strong candidate.

The above is taken from the Lexington Leader.

Judge Howard was born and raised in this county and we bear witness of the statement of the special, "uncompromising Republican, able lawyer and gentleman."

Prof. Everett Dix has been nominated as a candidate for the Legislature by the Republicans of Bracken county. He would be for Bradley for U. S. Senator.

Favors Commission.

At a meeting of County Superintendents, held at Frankfort, a committee was appointed to draft a law to create a commission for each county to take charge of the schools instead of the present system of trustees. A wise step.

Returns to Family After 19 Months.

Reunited after an absence of nineteen months, Nannie Claypole Wood, of Paris, was overcome with joy when her husband, Robert Wood, who mysteriously disappeared on the night of February 2, 1906, greeted her and her two children at the residence of Dr. Margaret C. Wood, where she was employed as housekeeper.

Mr. Wood was a brakeman in the employ of the Louisville & Nashville railroad and was happily residing with his little family. On the night of his disappearance as above referred to, he affectionately kissed his wife and little ones and left to go out on his regular trip to Corbin, Ky., and was due back as his custom to return the second day. Failing to show up, his wife made inquiries of his whereabouts without the slightest information that could account for his absence. Days, weeks and months went by and no tidings of the absent husband and father came to relieve the worry of the almost distracted woman.

The aid of railroad officials and the detective department of the road was invoked in an effort to solve the problem of Mr. Wood's absence, but without avail. Section men along the road from Paris to Corbin were required to make a search for his body as it was believed he met his death by being thrown from his train. Notidings came of the many efforts to solve the mystery, when family and friends began to realize that he had possibly met with foul play.

Without the aid and support of her husband, Mrs. Wood was compelled to seek employment and found a home as housekeeper. When Mr. Wood arrived in Paris from California, where he holds a like position with a western railroad, he was informed of his family's whereabouts and going to their home was met at the door by his little daughter who, recognizing her father, clasped him about the neck and cried "Oh Papa." Mr. Wood, who will return to California with his family, declined to explain the cause of his long absence.

PREWITT

Proposes Uniform Tax System For Life Insurance.

At the session of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners at Richmond, Va., September 8, the resolution of Commissioner Henry R. Prewitt, of Kentucky, for a uniform tax system hit a popular chord and directed attention to the injustice of the present plan. The resolution declared that the question was one of great importance and danger; that it was onerous on a particular class, and was really penalizing insurance consumers; that, inasmuch as the expense had to be borne by the consumers, the old laws acted as a penalty upon policy holders.

Mr. Prewitt's resolution called for the appointment of a special committee of seven to take the subject under consideration, and that the committee be directed to ascertain the amount of taxes in various States; to make a comparison between insurance taxation and that on other branches of business, and then recommend a uniform tax system be enacted which would prove to be fair.

During the course of his address, Mr. Darwin P. Kingery, president of the New York Life, highly commended the resolution of the Kentucky Commissioner.

This resolution is evidence that Mr. Prewitt is working at his State business, giving much time and thought to it.

Preachers Hear Judge Hager.

Prominent in the audience this morning were several of the ministers of Barbourville, and they were attentive listeners to Judge Hager when he defined his position in favor of a county unit law which will extend to every county in the State. These views caught the crowd and the Democrats say that the speech gained the Democratic ticket many votes in Knox county.

Judge Hager, John K. Hendrick candidate for Attorney General, and the Courier-Journal correspondent were guests to-day at Barbourville of Judge J. C. Black, one of the best-known Democrats in Kentucky, and were entertained at dinner at his handsome home. The candidates were met at the depot by Democrats of Barbourville and taken to the hotel in buggies.

At the courthouse the Barbourville band was playing and the town resembled a Democratic stronghold, instead of being in one of the biggest Republican counties in the State.—Courier-Journal.

HAGER MAKES FRIENDS IN KNOX.

Attitude On Temperance Pleases Republicans.

Knox county, which is for prohibition and votes against saloons always by a large majority, was represented in large numbers at Corbin, Ky., by its citizens, who turned out to hear what the Democratic candidate for Governor had to say on the temperance question. They had heard the Republican candidate only a short time ago, and it is generally understood in Barbourville that they were not satisfied with the position taken by A. E. Willson. Judge S. W. Hager defined his position so clearly that there were shouts of approval, and these shouts came from Republicans as well as Democrats.

When Mr. Willson spoke in Barbourville a committee of ministers numbering about a dozen called on the Republican candidate and asked him to define his position on the temperance question. Mr. Willson told them that he was a temperance man himself, but that he did not favor wiping out an industry like the whisky business. He would not modify his views and took practically the opposite stand from that occupied by the Democrats. The delegation of ministers went away unsatisfied and feeling that they could not support Willson.

Big Failure.

The failure of the Broice-Grogan Lumber Co., of Lexington, including other larger plants in different states, was more severe than at first reported. About $1,500,000 is now involved. The Lexington plant was a small part of the enterprise.

"Had dyspepsia or indigestion for years. No appetite, and what I did eat distressed me terribly. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me."—J. H. Walker, Sunbury, Ohio.

Sold Pledged Tobacco.

At New Castle, Ky., the Henry county board of control of the Burley Tobacco Society has instituted five suits in the Henry Circuit Court against persons who, it is alleged, have shipped and sold their crops of 1906 tobacco after having pledged the same to the society, to be controlled and sold by the board of control.

DID HE VOTE FOR THE NEGRO?

Is the report so that Republican candidate for Governor, Willson, voted for Asbury the negro, republican candidate for Register and against the lamented Cecil the poor white mountain boy. Let Mr. Willson answer this put by the white mountain boys. This is a question according to his own manner of formulation, not what he would do but what he did do.

WHISKEY LAWYERS LEAD REPUBLICANS.

The Republican State Convention in Louisville, which nominated Mr. Willson for Governor and the other candidates on that ticket, was presided over by ex-Gov. W. O. Bradley, a regularly employed attorney of the whiskey people, who appeared as their legal representative in the litigation against the State when the rectifiers sought to have the Courts declare unconstitutional the act of the Democratic General Assembly placing a tax of 14 cents on each gallon of their product.

Another conspicuous leader of their party, who was only detained from their convention by an unfortunate accident, but who, from his sick bed, had much to do with the conduct of the convention, was Hon. John W. Yerkes, who is attorney for the liquor interests at Washington City.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

A gentleman came in from the country on Sunday, got under the influence of whiskey and next day his body was lifeless. From what bar-room was this intoxicant dispensed? Somebody is responsible. Have our officials made an attempt to locate the law offending saloons? Officials are answerable to the people who elected them and should they fail to use every means to locate the offenders they should be turned down. A good business man has been killed and the wife and child must suffer.

NOT ON MERIT.

To us an honest Republican said, our hopes of election is through means within Democratic ranks. Such a statement is an admission that the Republican party does not hope to elect their candidates by any merit of their own.

Whatever wrongs may come to pass, through any acts of Democrats will be corrected by that party. They have never failed to do this and that without help of Republicans.

DON'T KNOW HIS OWN WORDS.

Mr. Willson, Republican candidate for Governor of Kentucky, said in his speech at Paris Gov. Beckham had never helped the temperance cause by any official acts.

He didn't, then who was it that signed the temperance bills?

The Governor could have vetoed every one of them, but he vetoed one of them. Would any representative of the whiskey trust, under salary, have done as well?

HAGER RIGHT.

Judge Hager was right when he demanded Willson to make specific charges of irregularities in his or any other office in the state administration. A general charge bears with it misrepresentation. Mr. Willson should show up or shut up.

VOICE IT OUT.

We are glad our voting place is not in the city of Louisville. We can give assistance however to the good people there, by favoring a constitutional amendment by which the sale of whiskey can be voted out of the entire state. This is coming.

The Anti-Saloon League is pledged for a stronger County Unit Bill and so is Judge Hager. Democratic nominee for Governor.

SHOOT OR GIVE UP THE GUN.

Mr. Willson, Republican nominee for Governor of Kentucky, declines to meet Senator Newman in joint debate on the campaign issues. Willson should either come up and like a man meet Senator Newman or put a stop on his general charges of graft, deficits and mismanagement. He should prove his statements or ring off. This challenge is gone at any time.

DEFEAT HIM.

The Democratic nominee for Mayor of Louisville, advocates in his platform the repeal of the Sunday laws. He deserves and will no doubt receive a turn down by the voters of that city. If he stands for open saloons on Sunday he should be defeated.

Nominate candidates who will be apt to enforce laws and who line up with advocates of civic righteousness and self control.

Mrs. K. O. Clarke welcomes you on Tuesday and Wednesday.

On page 4, column 5, is an article: "Qualifications for Officials." It pertains to our city and county. Read it.

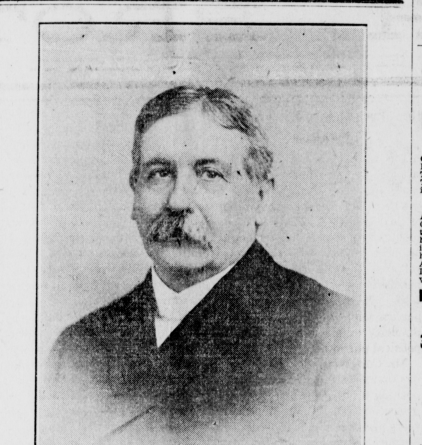

A Serious Charge.

Albert Bondurant, colored, aged about 33 years, was arraigned in County Court last week, charged with improper relations with a negro child 13 years old. In default of $500 bail he was committed to jail. Reports regarding the child 11 years old which died are so contradictory that we prefer not to consider them. If guilty he deserves severest penalty imposed by the law.

Rummage Sale.

Saturday morning beginning at 9:30 o'clock the women of the Methodist Church will have a rummage sale in the Trimble building under the rink. Afternoon from 3 o'clock they will serve cream, cakes and cake.

In this issue is the report of the Anti-Saloon League of the Kentucky Christian Missionary Convention. Read it and see whether or not you can stand for the anti-saloon movement.

The Parist As A Practical Politician.

The country has not heard the last of the Harriman campaign fund. Nothing so embarrassing to the President has occurred in all of his political career. When such things are possible under the leadership of a man of the Roosevelt type there is indeed a great necessity for laws prohibiting corporation contributions to campaigns, and requiring the greatest publicity in all expenditures for political purposes.

Mr. Cortelyou, who as Secretary of Commerce and Labor, was in position to learn the secrets of the great corporations, was Mr. Roosevelt's personal choice for chairman of the National Committee and chief director of the campaign. Mr. Cortelyou knew of the means employed to secure all of the campaign funds, and the sources from which they came. He is now in a position, by the President's favor, which gives him opportunity to make some returns for the favors bestowed in 1904. This may not be plain, ordinary graft, it may not be the grossest sort of prostitution of the public authority, it may not be a plain sale of the powers of the Government, but it is not the idealistic political methods which the country expects under so high-minded a man and so earnest a preacher of public morality as Mr. Roosevelt. - Lexington Herald.

Horse Show.

Among the features of this year's show, will be the exhibition of Solstar, king of the Elmendorf stud, whose mile on August 25th, 1899, 1:33 1/2, is still the world's record, and is well remembered by the older generations of lovers of the turf. This great horse has never been permitted to leave Elmendorf since his retirement, and his owner, Mr. J. B. Haggis, who is making a special trip from New York to witness his exhibition at Louisville, probably will never again permit this precious piece of horseflesh, to leave his Blue Grass home.

President Akcas and Secretary Fox are easily accessible by telephone, and have pledged themselves to reserve the very best seats for Kentucky visitors.

An interesting class will be the lady's driving contest. In this class, amateurs only are permitted to enter, and the driving will be done with a horse and two-wheeled rig to be furnished by the management. The drive will be made through obstacles with an allowance of one hundred percent. Striking an obstacle takes away ten percent, one percent being deducted for each second over one hundred seconds, and one percent for each second under one hundred seconds. Four or five contestants will be permitted to drive each night, and the prize, which is a beautiful piece of plate, will be awarded at the close of the contest, Saturday night. Much interest is being manifested in this class, and as no entry fee is charged, and post entries may be made, the management hopes that the visiting ladies from out in the state will try their skill against the fair whips of Louisville.

The Arabian horses secured in the heart of the Arabian desert from the Anezah tribe last year by Homer Davenport, the famous New York cartoonist, have also been secured for exhibition in the Louisville show. These horses with their Belouin attendants, who accompanied them from Anzab, in all their curious costumes, will make a most interesting show, and standing side by side with the famous Elmendorf thoroughbreds, Kentuckians will be able to see how nearly their own perfect breed resembles the original ancestral breed of the Arabian desert.

Dry Legislator.

What a droll lot of people the members of the Legislature must have been at the last session! Three hundred add eighteen dollars is the amount that the State has been compelled to pay for the lithia water they drank, in addition to the other things they drank "with foam on the top." In one day, it is stated, the members drank 500 gallons at public expense. That was about five quarts of water to the member, which seems to be rather intemperate. - Savannah News.

It is said the Eleventh district will poll more Democratic votes than ever before.

Kentucky Mayor On Temperance Question.

"It is a remarkable fact that the position of the two great parties has entirely changed in regard to the prohibition question. The Democratic party used to point with pride to its record in the cause of personal liberty and view with alarm any infringement of it.

Today that same old party would compel all citizens to live as the majority dictate, while the Republican party, at least in the South, would grant every man the right to take a drink when he chooses, provided he harras no one else in doing so." With the efforts of the Democrats to foist compulsory legislation on the entire people of the State, I should not be surprised to see Kentucky go Republican.

He reads the papers, the platons and he puts the Republican attitude on the temperance question just where all other who can understand plain english Mr. Ashbrook in same article he adds as a Mayor my vote is not with the absolute prohibitionist.

Bees vs. Religion.

Collected, Conto, Special to the New York World.

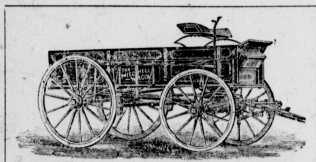

For many months the attendance at the Methodist church has fallen from Sunday to Sunday on account of the attacks of bees. The bees were of the busy order and evinced a predilection for the hats of women worshippers. Every time a bee was fooled somebody was stung.

Finally it was discovered that there was a wild bee hive in the church spire.

Two bee men crawled to the lofty hive and smoked out the bees. They obtained a hundred pounds of honey. The town at large took a day off to watch the perilous feat.

Dear Sir:—The Farmers Institute lecturers come to your city from Winchester. It is not necessary to say that much depends on the local talent and how well the Institute has been advertised. I beg leave to assure you that the lecturers sent by the State come in the spirit of helpfulness with no axes to grind, save those that will advance their best interests.

Yours for Success,

Dear Sir:—Calculating that this answer to your favor of 6th inst. will reach you at the above place—my old college town—I desire to thank you and assure you that your lectures here on the 27th and 28th instances will be well advertised, and if our farmers do not take advantage of them, it will be their fault and their loss.

I agree with you that there can not be any axes to grind in this great utilitarian movement (unless it is to sharpen the intellect) for it means not only the greatest good to the greatest number, but what benefits the farmer benefits all, either directly or indirectly.

Yours for better farming and more of it.

KENTUCKY STATE DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 31, '07. To the Public:

In October 1906, the Fifth State Development Convention was held in Winchester. It had 225 delegates present, was hospitably entertained by the people of Winchester and had most instructive and interesting sessions, in which experts from this State and other States read good papers on the following important subjects: Taxation, the education of young men in industrial and mechanical pursuits and in scientific farming, the work of the Geological Survey, immigration, good-roads, animal-husbandry, dairy-husbandry, the use of cement for building purposes, coal-mining and the coal-resources of Kentucky, asphalt, educational needs and possibilities in Kentucky, the cultivation of white burley tobacco, a uniform system of public accounting, the railroad extensions needed in Kentucky, the need of protecting and developing our forests. All these topics were discussed by practical men and professors of Universities of this State and other States and by experts regularly employed by the United States Government in various departments in Washington. The information given by these men to the delegates would, if communicated to the people of the State, immediately produce practical results of far-reaching benefit to the whole state.

Some important law-reforms were discussed. More ought to be so discussed at the next convention which will be held in Louisville November 18, 20 and 21, 1907. Many able men of the State that would not seek or hold public office can, in this way, point out the needs of time. This sort of public discussion is all the more needed, before our Legislature meets, because it meets only once in two years and sits only sixty days and no serious matter can be gotten through unless it has previously been thoroughly discussed. In the coming Convention an opportunity will be offered for bringing out information and argument on every important topic. Out of such discussion will come a clearer view of public questions and practical improvement in many directions. We have the climate, the soil, the timber, the streams, the minerals and the location for the development of a splendid Commonwealth. The duty is on us to make the most of our golden opportunities. We must hasten and enlarge our prosperity.

Any white citizen may join this Association by paying one dollar. Fiscal Courts may and should appropriate a small per cent on the assessed valuation of the property of the county to help to meet the expenses of the Association and to properly advertise the resources of every section and every industry in the State. Each member of such a Fiscal Court so helping in the work will be authorized to name two members of the association from his managerial district. Commercial and other organizations of every town ought to solicit members of the association and ought to send delegates to its convention, and should now cooperate with us. If sufficient funds can be raised, this association will have ample, permanent headquarters for us as a sort of clearing-house for all the industrial organizations of the State and might eventually have a permanent place for the practical exhibition of our industries and resources. Moreover, such an association, if well supported, could have a great influence in promoting proper reforms in legislation and in business methods.

We need the encouragement and the active help of everybody and we hope that all who want to bring about any improvement will volunteer at once. Mere complaints benefit nobody; but active work over the whole State would make important changes immediately. Send a dollar and your full name and address to Mr. A. Y. Qualifications for Officials.

For the successful management of the affairs of a City, or County or State there is need of intelligence, attentiveness to business, self control or sobriety, honesty and conscience. Even though these attributes are possessed some men are not adapted to, suitable for, such management. If the incumbent in or aspirant for office is seriously defective in any or all of these respects, his usefulness is impaired. If, as private citizen, he is slow to comprehend, is indolent, is dissolute, is dishonest, will his promotion to office change these traits, qualify him for good citizenship, or impart executive ability? No.

An obligation rests on every man to give his community a high type of manhood in his own life; also in the kind of man whom he elects to administer in civil affairs.

Public office should be a trust sacredly guarded, directed by a conscience void of offense toward God or man.

Frequent or habitual drunkenness should disqualify men for office.

A sober man may be honest, clear in vision, just in his conclusions, but when strong drink has the mastery over him he easily becomes the victim of designing, unscrupulous men, is perverted in judgment, condones open violations of law and degenerates into public reproach. Be careful in the selection of City, County and State officials.

Never can tell when you'll mash a finger or suffer a cut, bruise, burn or scald. Be prepared. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil instantly relieves the pain—quickly cures the wound. 8-41

NEWSPAPERS ONLY

Will be Used by Newcastle, Indiana, Business Men in the Future For Their Advertising.

The Retail Merchants' Association of Newcastle, Ind., has placed the ban on all advertising schemes, and will have nothing to do with any, including so-called business directories or other schemes devised to separate a merchant from his cash. Newspaper advertising is recognized as the only profitable publicity method and will be strictly adhered to in the future. This decision was reached after one year's investigation of results obtained from various forms of advertising.

A committee was appointed by the Merchants' League who kept actual figures on the business done by the merchants and traced to various forms of advertising. The only form of advertising showing actual benefits was traced to legitimate newspapers. Special boom editions were condemned by the committee and merchants were urged to refrain from using them. They are usually the products of solicitors traveling from city to city interesting a certain class of newspapers in their schemes and taking a per cent. of the profits for their share in the work, spending no money with the merchants who advertised. The Newcastle Merchants' League recommend that their merchants use only the bona fide newspapers published regularly either daily, Sunday or weekly.

THE NEW WAY TO TAX MORTGAGES

It will be interesting when a year has rolled around to estimate the amount of tax that has been collected in Kentucky by the state and by counties on real estate loans and mortgage taxes. This subject of mortgage taxation is one that mortgage lenders very carefully consider. In most states it has been recognized that to tax mortgages is to impose double taxation, since by the borrowing of money upon a mortgage, property has been created, but only the same property twice. It has been considered, however, that the state's interest in the mortgage, as a source of revenue, is so great that it is worth the sacrifice of a registration tax upon mortgages. Under this system a tax of five dollars on each thousand dollars of the amount secured by the mortgage, or a subsequent tax is imposed and the entire amount of the tax collected goes into the state treasury.

Where this system has been tried, the result has been a considerable increase in the revenue from taxation of mortgages. The system which they are trying in Kentucky, by which the county clerk is required to make a correct return to the assessor of all mortgages, gives very little chance for any mortgages to escape taxation, so that to adopt in Kentucky the system of a registration tax on mortgages would not be productive of more revenue, and might possibly be productive of less, but it is questionable whether the slight additional revenue derived from these mortgages makes up for the injustice done to the borrowers of money. It is not conceivable that a man will lend money at 5 or 6 per cent, and then pay from 2 1/2 to 3 per cent in the way of tax, and yet it would amount to the same thing to many of our Kentucky cities and towns. Rather than do so, since he can not now, under the law, avoid discharging his position, the mortgagee, the lender will surely retire from the money lending market. These restrictions curtail the amount of money that will be loaned, and the result is a hardship to borrowers. It should be remembered, also, that the borrowers affected in this case are of the very best class—farmers who need to raise money on their farms; men of small means who desire to borrow money to build homes, as well as men who place real estate to all them in extensive building or industrial operations. The possibility of borrowing the money they need from private sources has always been of great advantage to people of these classes, especially in small towns and cities where there are not so many trust companies making loans. The lender might stand the burden of the tax if he were allowed to add that amount to his rate of interest, but he is not allowed to do that by the law. The off in that direction by the heavy taxes in many cases he takes chances on this point and by various devices will contrive to collect from the borrower some extra premium by way of compensation for the tax he must pay on the mortgage. In this way the burden falls direct on the borrower and must inevitably tend to increase the interest rate on mortgage loans.

That a tax on mortgages does so increase the interest rate on mortgage loans has been proved by the experience of New York. It is not to be supposed that there will be any opposition to the tax on mortgages on the part of corporations which have money to lend, since, by law, banks and trust companies are not specifically taxed on their mortgage loans, but any banker desirous of seeing anything done that restricts the amount of available capital in the state, for such restriction of available capital means restriction of business, restriction of all forms of progress that make the state more prosperous. Experience has, up to this time, demonstrated that the only beneficiaries of the attempt to rigidly tax mortgages are the foreign insurance companies, which come into the state and lend their money and being resident in other states, do not have to pay a tax on their mortgages.

The same registration tax scheme has been adopted in applied to the mortgages filed by railroad and other corporations. This is proving a more effective way of taxing loans than to take the chance of individual holders being willing to give them in for taxation, which they generally fail to do, in view of the fact that the bonds rarely pay more than 5 to 10 per cent, and three-fifths to three-fourths of this would have to be given up to the tax gatherer if the bonds are listed with the assessor. And men will not willingly submit to confiscation.

The subject of taxing credits is one of the most difficult in the realm of taxation, and it is a field where mistakes are most costly, because it is the taxation of this form of property that drives capital from the community and to drive capital from the community means the curtailment of all the enterprises that build up the community and add to its population and to the value of its real estate.

The Knock-out Blow.

The blow which knocked out Corbett was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the rise of the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing out to the public a parallel fact: that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ of the human body as well as in it. We protect our heads, throats, feet and lungs, but the stomach we are utterly indifferent to. We look down upon the solar plexus and knock it out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures "weak stomach," indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, bad thin and impure blood and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous surfaces and hence cures catarrhs, so matter where located or what stage it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is used to cleanse the passages with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy while using Dr. Pierce's "Discovery" as a constitutional remedy. Why the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures catarrhal diseases, as of the stomach, bowels, bladder and other organs will be plain to you if you will read a booklet of extracts from the writings of eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients and explaining their curative properties. It is mailed free on request. Address Dr. V. C. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. This booklet gives all the ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicine from which it will be seen that they contain not a drop of alcohol, pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Advisor will be sent free, paper-bound, for 25 cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 51 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

The Commission reduced rate from Maysville to Carlisle from $1.45 to $1.15.

Health Officer Warns Parents.

Dr. N. R. Simmons, the City Health Officer of Lexington, has caused an official warning to be sent to all persons interested in the subject, to the effect that the law of both the city and the State requires that all children attending the public schools must be vaccinated as a preventive of disease, and as a requisite to their admission into the schools.

Both principals and teachers have been notified of this, and they are required to take the matter up with the parents of the children now in school. The law on this subject is strict, and it is made an offense for violation thereof.

Plant Trees in Kentucky.

To Mr. John Atkinson, of Earlington, president of the St. Bernard Mining Company, the state of Kentucky owes a debt of gratitude in the efforts which his company is making to perpetuate the forests of the state.

It was the privilege of the editor of this journal to visit the forests of this company and inspect the timber and the plantations.

The mining companies of the United States are great consumers of wood, and mining timbers are becoming more scarce each year—they cannot wait 300 years for oak to grow to replace the timbers now being used, and yet timber will be as necessary in future as it is at present.

But how many similar companies, mining coal, iron and other minerals, are making as good use of the land upon the surface in growing timbers for the future use in the mines as the St. Bernard Company is doing?

It is refreshing to observe, a great corporation as the St. Bernard Mining Company, of Earlington, Ky., take a different view of matters, and teach the people to plant trees and maintain a perpetual forest.

Since 1888 this company has planted over 1,000,000 black walnuts. During the past two years 75,000 catalpa speciosa and 75,000 locusts were planted on 225 acres of farm land, 888 feet apart, and are being cultivated.

The company plants annually from 150 to 250 bushels of nuts of the black walnut in vacant places in its forests, and on cleared lands, in Hopkins, county, Ky.

In 1900 several thousand tulip trees were planted on farm land, and at this time 20,000 young tulip trees are ready to be transplanted on farm lands or in vacant places in the forest.—Arlington.

Velvet At $75 A Yard.

"Some days ago I said a good deal to my wife about the increased cost of living, and incidentally laid particular stress on the size of her dressmaker's bills," said a well known man to some companions in the Army and Navy Club recently. "She took it all very meekly, and I was much pleased with my diplomatic way of broaching the subject. I told her that we now lived in an age of frightful extravagance, and that I wished most heartily that we could go back to the simple life our parents led in the good old days."

"She made no reply, but handed me an old letter, dated 1864, and asked me to read it. It was from the firm of A. T. Stewart & Co., of New York, to my mother-in-law and had inclosed a sample of velvet which they said was the cheapest they had in their store. It was the modest price of $75 a yard."

"My lecture was cut short, and I had to admit that my wife had the best of the argument."—Washington Post.

Report of Anti-Saloon League of K. C. M. C. Made at Latonia, Ky., Sept. 18, 1907.

Your committee on the work of the Anti-Saloon League comes before you with pleasure to report new victories achieved, to suggest reforms that should be undertaken, and to enlist your continued co-operation in a conflict the result of which neither friends nor enemies doubt.

Cammack-Redwine County Unit Law.

We reported at our last State Meeting the passage of the Cammack-Redwine County Unit Law. That law was not exactly what the temperance people of the State had asked for, but it was the best that could be obtained under existing circumstances. Many friends of the original bill misgave that we should refuse to accept the amendments that were added to it. But this would have discouraged our people who would have felt that they had sustained another defeat, and perhaps many would have given up in despair. Since the passage of the bill, we gladly report our cause has met with such success that its enemies have been filled with dismay and we ourselves have been amazed at results that far surpassed our fondest expectations.

Victories.

Within the fifteen months since the passage of the County Unit Bill thirty-four counties have driven the saloon from their borders. The last counties we have heard from are Green, whose vote stood 265 wet against 179 dry; and Lyon that marches up with a majority of nearly 600 dry. We have one hundred and six saloons in our Commonwealth. In ninety-two of these counties today no liquor can be lawfully sold. In old Kentucky there are only twenty-seven counties with licensed saloons in them; twenty-three of these are largely prohibition territory, only four are thoroughly infested with the liquor pest. Today there are not quite fifty towns and cities in our state where a saloon can be found. These months of conflict and of victory have seen an area of twelve thousand square miles, with a population of more than half a million, freed from the grog shop—the greatest enemy of the home, the state and the Church of God.

Losses.

Our success has not been uninterrupted. In two county and seven city elections our cause went down in defeat. In no case, however, was there disgrace in defeat. In each of these conflicts our attack was upon strongly entrenched forces; and the small majority by which we lost was obtained by misrepresentation, by bribery, or by other corrupt means. While we regret to lose an election and grieve for the community where the loss is sustained, we think an occasional defeat is not an unmitigated evil to our cause at large, inasmuch as it teaches us something of the tactics of our enemy and leads us to greater caution and more perfect preparation for future struggles.

Decisions of the Courts.

When the question of the County Unit Bill began to be agitated ten years ago, the liquor interests of our state ridiculed the suggestion of the proposed measure. It was claimed that such a law would be unconstitutional, that no court in the land would sustain it when the law was passed, and under our first victories were attained, the batteries of the enemy were turned upon us. The League now was called upon to defend in the courts the law which it had worked so hard and so long to secure. Eminent lawyers were engaged who ably maintained their services for little compensation. These lawyers took the position that the law is based upon the principles of our Declaration of Independence and the National Constitution. The decisions rendered in our favor were taken by the liquor men to the Court of Appeals with the hope of reversal. But in every case the decisions of the lower court were sustained. With all doubt concerning the constitutionality of the law removed, we look for further conquests in Kentucky and for the adoption of similar legislation in other States.

Political Parties and Party Leaders.

One gratifying proof of the growth of the temperance sentiment in our state is the fact that political parties are no longer so ready to be dominated by the liquor men. Ten years ago we were ignored, if not laughed at, by the two great political parties. But now all is changed. The politicians have come to understand that we belong to no party, but that we stand unalterably opposed to the saloon and that we are determined that it shall go. This with us, for the present, is the supreme issue, and party leaders understand that to hold our votes they must respect our convictions on this question. According to the Republican party, in its platform recently adopted, stands for a straight county unit law, such a law as we have been asking for all these ten years. The Democratic party through its leaders pledges itself to the same measure; this party's candidate for governor has spoken in most explicit terms on this and related questions. So, which ever party shall be in control after January 1st we have the assurance of that party's co-operation which we have sought so long. The liquor men see the handwriting on the wall, they know that their days are numbered, and they are prophesying how long it will be before their business is driven from our borders. Our best citizens are rejoicing over this, knowing that the purification of politics is waiting upon the dethroning of the liquor power.

Further State Legislation Needed.

Looking to the future the League proposes to use its best efforts to secure the following needed legislation:

1. A stronger County Unit Bill. The application of our present statute has shown us wherein it can be improved. These improvements we shall seek to secure.
2. Legislation to separate the saloon from every other form of business. It will close many of the worst dives in our cities. It is a measure that merits the approval of almost all classes of people, will be easily secured and will be a great boon when adopted.
3. The securing of such laws as will make it possible and imperative that all saloon licenses be revoked within thirty or sixty days after a vote prohibiting the sale of liquor goes into effect.
4. The making of such changes in our present Sunday laws as will render their enforcement certain, even in the face of the failure or refusal of local officers to do their sworn duty.

National Legislation.

As a part of our great nation we must lend a hand in securing such legislation in Congress as we know is needed. Such bills as the following should be secured:

1. A bill which will stop for ever the shipment of liquor into prohibition territory.
2. A bill which will prevent the granting of government licenses for the sale of liquor where it is forbidden by state law.

Recommendations.

 1. The hearty co-operation of every church. At least one Sunday in the year should be given to the work of the League, when a league speaker should occupy the pulpit and funds be secured for the prosecution of the work.
 2. The vigorous enforcement of law in every part of the state. The Anti-Saloon League is prepared to render all necessary assistance looking to this end, and it should be promptly applied to when the friends of temperance are not able to cope with local conditions.
 3. A continual campaign of education should be carried on. This is needed yet to hold the ground we have already won, and to secure that what yet remains to be taken. The preachers should discuss this great question occasionally from the pulpit, and temperance literature should be freely used. We especially recommend that every effort be made for increasing the circulation of every worthy temperance paper, especially the Kentucky Issue, the official organ of our league.
 4. The keeping of this one issue before us. Let us on our guard against divided energies. The business we have on hand is the suppression of the saloon. Let us finish this work, and then we may turn to other needed reforms.
 5. Making our plans to drive the saloon from every county in the state by January 1, 1909, except from a few of the strongholds which must be left for the final victory.
 6. Let us adopt as our ultimate aim state wide prohibition. For this, perhaps, we are not ready. We need more skill in holding conquered ground, and more legislation to prepare the way for that complete triumph to which the signs of the times are most unmistakably pointing.
 7. We further recommend that our people all over the state write to their representatives in congress urging them to vote for the temperance measures that will be presented at its next session.

Respectfully submitted,
ROGER T. NOLAN,
JOS. W. HAGIN,
MARK COLLIS, } Committee.

DENIES STORY.

Told By Gov. Durbin of Attempt to Bribe.

Samuel L. Mills, a printer, employed by the Methodist Book Concern of Cincinnati, claims to have letters in his possession which contradict the statement of former Gov. Winfield T. Durbin, of Indiana, two weeks ago, that a $83,000 bribe was offered him in 1901 to return William S. Taylor to Kentucky, according to a story published in an evening paper here.

According to Durbin's statement, he was invited in October, 1901, to visit Cincinnati and meet "certain persons." Durbin said he refused to come to Cincinnati, but sent State Senator C. C. Binkley, now dead, as his representative. Durbin declared the offer of $83,000 was made to Binkley.

Mills, who is a relative of Binkley, said the latter was in Cincinnati at the time mentioned, but that he came here to meet Grand Masters of the Old Fellows' Order from various States, he being Grand Master of the Indiana Lodge. At that time it was rumored that an attempt was made to bribe Gov. Durbin through Binkley, and on the latter's return to his home in Indiana, Mills says, he wrote Binkley about the rumor. In this correspondence, Mills declares Binkley said he could not understand how Durbin could conceive such a falsehood as to say money was offered him through Binkley as his representative for Taylor's return to Kentucky. He wrote that no bribe was offered him.

Mills said Prosecuting Attorney R. B. Franklin, of Kentucky, is trying to get these letters from him, but he refuses to part with them unless Arthur Goebel, brother of the late William Goebel, advises such action.

Lungs That Are Starved.

It is a fact that most of us are victims of our own hazy respiration and deprive ourselves of oxygen that is so necessary if we would keep our bodies at their highest point of efficiency.

Besides introducing oxygen into the blood, the lungs act as excretory organs, removing undesirable elements from the system at each expiration.

In ordinary or unconscious breathing only 10 to 13 per cent, of the air in the lungs is changed at each breath, leaving 80 to 90 per cent, of the lung capacity filled with stale air.

Forced or conscious breathing of pure air ventilates the lungs, driving out the 80 to 90 per cent, of the stationary or stale air.

All bedroom windows and doors should be wide open during sleep, thus connecting the lungs directly with the pure air of the outside world.

Timing The Lightning.

"As quick as lightning" we say without any definite idea of the actual duration of a flash of the electric fluid.

Of its instantaneous character we have no doubt. Indeed, a scientist who investigated the phenomenon a generation ago declared that it had no appreciable duration at all and could not be measured by time. The fact that our eyes appeared to testify otherwise he explained by saying what we see is a succession of flashes coming so rapidly that they appear to be continuous.

A German scientist has now attacked the problem by the aid of an ingenious apparatus which, operated by clockwork, measures time down to five-hundredths of a second. This device showed that lightning lasted from one-fiftieth to three-fiftieths of a second.—Cassidy Journal.

Col. Jack Chinn, the noted turfman and politician of Harrodsburg, will retire from the race-horse business. His farm and horses will be sold.

CHOUCH.—Mrs. Sarah Crouch died at her home near Plum, Bourbon county, on Saturday, September 14, 1907. She was the widow of Isaac Crouch, and was 78 years old. Three children survive her, John G. and Mrs. Minnie Henry, of Plum, and Breck Crouch, of Indian Territory. Rev. L. H. Reynolds conducted the funeral service at Flat Rock Church on Sunday and the burial was at North Middletown.

Many of our readers will remember that Dr. Tanner lived in our city for about three years and practiced osteopathy, being associated with Dr. Triplett most of the time. While here his health became so imperiled that he had to give up his professional duties. He went to Lexington last fall. His many friends will regret to hear of his death.

BARKLEY.—James Lane Barkley died at the home of Dr. May, at July, this county, on Monday morning at 6 o'clock, September 23, 1907. The burial was in Macpelah on Tuesday afternoon by the Masonic fraternity. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Barkley, both deceased. He married Miss Kate Johnson, adopted daughter of Sam Thomas, deceased, in his neighborhood. She, with a daughter, aged about seven years, survives him. There are three brothers, Everett and Robert, of Bath county, and William, of Fayette, and a sister, Mrs. Jno. Neal, of McIntosh, Fla. Mr. Barkley was in town on Sunday evening. Eurore home he was attacked with acute alcoholism and died as above stated.

Downs.—Mrs. Joetta, wife of Andrew J. Downs, of Means, Menifee county, died at the home of her father, W. S. Hamilton, in this county, on Monday afternoon, September 23, 1907, at 3:30 o'clock, aged 31 years. The remains were taken to her home yesterday afternoon and the funeral will take place near there this morning at 10 o'clock. Services will be conducted at the grave by Rev. Henry Adams, of Salt Lick. For three years the deceased was a great sufferer from rheumatism, and on Sunday, September 15th, she was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital, Lexington, for treatment, but as her condition there was regarded as hopeless, she was brought back to the home of her father. Mrs. Downs had been a faithful member of the Christian church, since about 14 years of age. She was a kind and loving wife and mother and true friend. She leaves a husband and one daughter, Bethel Ray, aged ten years, besides father, mother, brothers and sisters, to mourn her loss, to whom we extend our deepest sympathy in the loss of their dear one. Another sweet character has gone to God. Words of good cheer, of comfort and help have been hushed in death, and we stand sorrowing over the grave where we have laid the lifeless clay, but through our fast-falling, scalding tears we look up to God who has given our loved and lost and by faith will enter the celestial city to be with her and others of the redeemed. God comfort and bless the sorrowing ones.

The Pain Family

You know them; they are numerous, and make their presence felt everywhere. The names of the family are Headache, Toothache, Earache, Backache, Stomach ache, Neuralgia, etc. They are sentinels that warn you of any derangement of your system. When the brain nerves become exhausted or irritated, Headache makes you miserable; if the stomach nerves are weak, indigestion results, and you double up with pain, and if the more prominent nerves are affected, Neuralgia simply makes life unendurable. The way to stop pain is to soothe and strengthen the nerves. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do this. The whole Pain family yield to their influence. Harmless if taken as directed.

"I find Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills an excellent remedy for overcoming headache, neuralgia and distressing pains of all sorts. I have used them for the past seven years in this capacity with the best of results."

Baptist Missions in Kentucky.

(By corresponding secretary J. G. Bow.)

There is much to cheer, comfort and strengthen us if we can only see it or have to trust God for it. Take our mission work. True the condition is not ideal, the effort is not commensurate with our ability the result is not satisfactory in all things, yet it is encouraging. The receipts by the State Board last year were far above the previous year, an increase of 31 per cent in State Missions, 43 per cent in foreign Missions and 22 per cent in Home Missions.

In seven years the contribution to State Missions has increased from $5,869 to $15,000 to $35,344.83; Home Missions from $9,000 to $19,397.42. Then we had no church building fund, now it is more than $2,000 per month. (It ought to be ten times that amount.) The receipts last year for each and every month surpassed the receipts of the corresponding month of the year previous, with the exception of one month in the year. This year we start better off than ever. We received in May, 1906, $1,256.16; in May, 1907, $1,822.28; in June, 1906, $1,491.70; in June, 1907, $2,802.28; in July, 1906, $2,019.87; in July, 1907, $3,032.25; in August, 1906, $4,553.86; in August, 1907, $6,407.27. This makes $3,752 more than the total receipts up to September last year. This indicates growth and development, it gives encouragement and hope. We thank God and take courage.

Non Partisan Sometimes.

Kentucky Republicans placed themselves on record as favoring a non-partisan judiciary, and yet only a few days ago a candidate was nominated in the Sixth Appellate district in opposition to Judge Lassing, and this in spite of the fact that a number of Republican papers in various parts of the State had expressed the hope and advised that Judge Lassing should have no opposition. As a rule Republicans only favor non-partisan judges and other non-partisan officials when they are in a position not to be able to change existing conditions.—Georgetown Times.

Testimony was given in New York by Assistant Controller Fay, of the Standard Oil Company, to the effect that profits aggregating $490,315,934 were made by the company in the seven years from 1899 to 1906. In the same period the company's gross assets increased from $200,791,623 to $371,664,531.

Kentucky Bankers Turn Out In force.

There were 250 delegates in attendance and it is predicted a large increase the coming year. Mr. John G. Winn, of this city is president, and the following are extracts from his annual address: PRESIDENT WINN'S ADDRESS.

President Winn reviewed past year's history of the association and pointed out the plans to be pursued in expanding the work of organization and its influences. "The close of the present year shows the largest increase in membership in the history of our association," said President Winn, "and if present plans mature the close of the coming year will find the scope of the organization widened until its influence will be felt to the remotest corners of our Commonwealth."

President Winn struck a popular chord when he forecast the introduction of a bill at the next session of Congress insuring bank depositors. He predicted the passage of a "guarantee fund" bill and declared that it was up to the convention to take up the question.

President Winn's remarks favored the protection of depositors, and it is possible some action will be taken in the nature of a resolution urging the passage of the insurance bill by the association. The address was attentively listened to by the delegates, and the president was loudly applauded when he concluded and turned to introduce Mr. Clews.

VOTERS OF KENTUCKY.

Gaze Upon This Record of Republican Administration Of Public Affairs From 1896 to 1900.

Raised the tax rate in 1896 from 421 cents to 524 cents for the four years, to fall at its close to 471 cents. Notwithstanding, left in 1900 a bonded and floating debt of over two millions of dollars for Democratic officials to meet, with only $303,334.51 in the Public Treasury.

Appropriated to public institutions, for their betterment, during the four years only $186,009.41, retiring in 1900 with no new departure along this line, and with the institutions in deplorable condition, and under an antiquated system of management.

Established a record within the first few months of 1896 of placing the military power of 1896 above the civil power, true to their instincts of radical hate and Southern Republicanism, continued this policy throughout the four years of the Bradley administration, and during the short time the unrepentable Taylor was at the head of affairs, using soldiers to prevent the General Assembly from electing a United States Senator in 1896; soldiers at the polls in 1899 in Louisville, and at Frankfort in 1900 to disperse the Legislature. Such brazen violation of the Constitution by officials sworn to enforce its provisions encouraged their followers to lawlessness, resulting in the cruel assassination of William Goebel.

Gave the Common schools during the four years an average per capita of only $2.35. In 1898, in desperate effort to make campaign material, "padded" the per capita to $2.70, and left a deficit in and debt upon the School Fund of $277,000.00, which had to be paid by Democratic officials.

Asisted through members in the legislature, in delaying adoption of the Uniform text book law, a Democratic platform measure, thereby continuing for several years the high prices charged for school books by the trust, and enabling them to dispose of a greater number of books at the expense of the tax payer by preventing the adoption of the uniform system.

The deficit in management of the two State prisons, from 1895 to 1898 inclusive, the period of Republican control, was $273,111. They thus spent more money in excess of income of the prisons in the three years of their regime than the Democratic party will spend in 1907 in paying salaries of all State officials, Circuit Judges, and in maintaining the State Fair, Normal Schools and Pure Food Station. The excess over these payments is $5,911.07.

During the four years the Agricultural Department of the State government was operated only to pay salaries of its officials. The farmers got absolutely no benefits from it, the then Commissioner turning back into the Treasury money appropriated for the benefit of the farmer. The labor inspection branch of the Department was an absolute nullity, nothing being done to benefit the condition of the working men in workshop, mill or mine.

Expended for public printing and binding during the four years the sum of $184,724.25, or an average per year of $45,181.06. The party is now making Democratic expenditure for this purpose a campaign issue. Gaze upon the Democratic record in comparison.

Republican Governor and Orator dropped efforts to collect the big Kentucky War Claim, after investigating it. Later, after he had retired from office, the Republican Governor sought employment as an attorney to assist in making the collection. Look to the parallel column for what the Democratic Administration accomplished in this matter.

During Republican four years, their management of the Insurance Department of the State turned in to the public Treasury in taxes $406,367.66, and in surplus $20,382.41. The office was not seldom heard of in the insurance world, and no new innovation marked its operation.

Destroyed, through their conduct of affairs, the confidence of their investors, causing much capital to be withdrawn from the State, and leaving such chaotic conditions in 1900 that Democratic officials found an enormous task before them in restoring former conditions.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

Nelson Davis, who lives on Letcher Avenue, Richmond, Ky., and is a plasterer by occupation, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills brought relief to me when all else had failed, and I had begun to fear that there was no cure for me. I was in a state of almost hopelessness when I got my first box."

The workings of Doan's Kidney Pills are marvelous. They worked a quick and lasting benefit in my case."
